Appalachian Antique Hardwoods Receives 2009 Best of Waynesville Award

WASHINGTON D.C., June 8, 2009 -- Appalachian Antique Hardwoods – www.aahardwoods.com has been selected for the 2009 Best of Waynesville Award in the Building Materials category by the U.S. Commerce Association (USCA). “We are honored to be recognized by an organization such as the U.S. Commerce Association”, says Zac Guy, Founder of Appalachian Antique Hardwoods. “My staff works hard on marketing our company and it is very rewarding for me to see them recognized in such a prominent position”.

The USCA "Best of Local Business" Award Program recognizes outstanding local businesses throughout the country. Each year, the USCA identifies companies that they believe have achieved exceptional marketing success in their local community and business category. These are local companies that enhance the positive image of small business through service to their customers and community.

Various sources of information were gathered and analyzed to choose the winners in each category. The 2009 USCA Award Program focused on quality, not quantity. Winners are determined based on the information gathered both internally by the USCA and data provided by third parties.

U.S. Commerce Association (USCA) – www.us-ca.org is a Washington D.C. based organization funded by local businesses operating in towns, large and small, across America. The purpose of USCA is to promote local business through public relations, marketing and advertising. The USCA was established to recognize the best of local businesses in their community. Our organization works exclusively with local business owners, trade groups, professional associations, chambers of commerce and other business advertising and marketing groups. Our mission is to be an advocate for small and medium size businesses and business entrepreneurs across America.

Appalachian Antique Hardwoods offers over three thousand recycled products to architects, builders, interior designers and homeowners. Their large client base provides Appalachian Antique Hardwoods a unique opportunity to use their experience, as a vehicle to educate and promote the benefits of Green Building techniques while becoming environmental stewards. Each product contributes valuable points toward Leadership in Environmental and Energy Design (L.E.E.D.), NAHB Green Built, and Healthy Built certifications. Appalachian’s professional green-certified staff has successfully designed and completed over 3,500 reclaimed wood projects, making them a premier leader in the use of antique wood building materials.
