AAH selected by Dakota and Associates as its Best Green Building Products Supplier for 2008

July 10, 2008 (Waynesville, NC) – Dakota and Associates, Inc. has selected Appalachian Antique Hardwoods, LLC as its Best Green Building Products Supplier for 2008. Appalachian Antique Hardwoods was selected for its unmatched selection of green building products, strong commitment to quality and sustainability, and outstanding reputation as evidenced in the selection process involving over 100 companies nationwide. Appalachian Antique Hardwoods, LLC was formed over 14 years ago and has grown into one of the largest and most respected providers of antique wood and natural element green building products in the country.

Appalachian Antique Hardwoods, LLC is a North Carolina based company that has been providing the highest quality reclaimed, recycled and renewable wood products since 1994 – www.aahardwoods.com. Appalachian Antique Hardwoods offers over three thousand recycled products to architects, builders, interior designers, and homeowners. Their broad client base provides Appalachian Antique Hardwoods a unique opportunity to use their experience to educate and promote the benefits of Green Building techniques while becoming environmental stewards. Each product contributes valuable points toward Leadership in Environmental and Energy Design (L.E.E.D.), NAHB Green Built, and Healthy Built certifications. Appalachian's professionally green-certified staff has a combined 200 years of experience and over 3,500 successful reclaimed wood projects making them a premier leader for antique wood and reclaimed wood products throughout the country.
